1. On 22 June 1951, the Schuetzen Kaserne on Verwuer Maar Strasse, Oberswalde (N 53/V 06), still quartered about 4,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets. Rocket launchers [REDACTED] and trucks [REDACTED] towing AT guns of about 50-mm, arrived at the installation, coming from the direction of the Artillerie Kaserne. Seven tanks from the Schuetzen Kaserne were loaded at the Oberswalde railroad station on 21 June. There was little training activity in the billeting area. In addition to other troops, 18 soldiers received basic training. [REDACTED]
